Painting for several years now. I've participated in numerous exhibitions across the globe and have won prizes from reputable organizations. In addition, I've had my work featured in art publications. After selling my originals and many prints across the globe, I began exploring the world using my paints and brushes. My style is contemporary and tries to capture the essence of my painting subject, allowing freedom and creativity to shine through. I reduce complex subjects into simpler forms that encourage fun.

You'll Learn the following:

- What equipment and materials do I require to paint along
- A primary method to finishing your first painting
- How to avoid the most common mistakes
- Selecting the appropriate colors for your painting
- How do you blend colors and create textures for various effects
- Corrections and improvements
- The finishing elements that create a huge impact
