Description: The Tabla, an Indian Percussion Instrument, features two hand drums of distinct sizes and shapes. Crafted from hollowed-out wood, clay, or metal, the smaller drum produces treble and tonal sounds, while the larger drum (baya) contributes to bass tones. Laced with hoops, thongs, and wooden dowels, these drums are tuned using dowels and hoops to tighten the membranes.

The playing technique involves intricate finger and palm configurations, generating a diverse range of sounds and rhythms represented by mnemonic syllables.

Despite being a classical instrument, the Tabla is embraced by EDM and Hip Hop producers like KSHMR, DJ Snake, and TroyBoi, adding an authentic Indian ethnic flair to their tracks.

Tabla Essentials features over 1.8 GB of Tabla Loops, Tabla Fills, Top Loops, FXs, and One-shots, totaling 850+ samples. Both solo and double-recorded versions are provided, with solo loops centered and double-recorded loops panned left and right for a wide and thick sound.
