We are pleased to present "Metropia" - filled with dark sci-fi thrillers that give you a glimpse into the future of cybernetics filled with avant-garde technology. It will provide the opportunity to investigate the possibilities of new concepts. If you're developing a surreal science fiction project, involving spooky scenes, background music to create futuristic worlds or any other such things, this music will provide you with some good source of inspiration to boost the futuristic vibe.

"Metropia" features high-end trailer cues paired with the latest cinematic-style sound effects, ideal for all kinds of space fantasy, science fiction, and mystery projects. From cinematic epics to the pounding drums, dark, intense pulses to otherworldly and hypnotic overtones filled with sci-fi, futuristic rises and fx that are energetic, and more. Let this collection take your productions into a different dimension!

In the details, you will receive 9 trailer cues that are ready to be used and supplied in industry-standard 24bit/96kHz format to guarantee the highest quality needed for the current needs of cinematic production. Each track is BPM marked to make selecting the appropriate file simpler. They can be used in your cinematic projects without needing to pay any licensing fees. What can we say is that this program will grant us the freedom to create movie trailers as professionals in just a few minutes!

Ideal for any science-fiction, space-fiction or epic, adventure or fantasy project, it can be well-suited for many other scenarios where film-quality sound is needed.

Are you ready to embark on a journey that will take you beyond the darkness to the dark planets?
