The first Light Leaks package is a 10-texture package constructed to provide you a few of the most frequent kinds of light escapes. From bokeh to shade flows, this is a superb place to begin if you would like to include subtle light and classic picture effects to your photographs. Not only can these overlays add a classic look and texture to your photographs, but they may also be used to correct or increase the already natural lighting of your own photos.

Contains 10 high resolution - 4000x4000 pixel textures using an *infinite business permit.

Utilization: This package is used with"Screen" mixing mode in Photoshop, Photoshop Elements, or some other program that lets layering images with mixing modes. Make sure you experiment with different blend modes.
