You'll learn:

- Adding hatching-based shading to your work.
- Spotting details and exciting areas to enhance with creative elements.

By the end of the class, you'll have created a lovely ink sketch of a peaceful cabin, complete with a tree line, multiple textures, and an immersive three-dimensional style.

Whether you want to learn new skills or practice your ink techniques, this bite-sized class aims to make sketching less intimidating and overcome creative block. So, grab your pencils, pens, and a mug of tea or coffee, and let's get sketching together! I'll see you in class.
