What is Tech House EFX2?

"Tech House EFX2" is likely a term or reference to a collection of sound effects and audio samples specifically designed for use in tech house music production. Tech house is a subgenre of electronic dance music (EDM), and it often features a blend of techno and house music elements. Sound effects and audio samples are essential components for creating dynamic and engaging tech house tracks.

A "Tech House EFX2" collection could include a wide range of audio samples and sound effects tailored for tech house music production. These samples may include things like drum hits, percussion elements, synth stabs, vocal snippets, atmospheric sounds, risers, drops, and other audio elements used to add energy, groove, and atmosphere to tech house tracks.
