OneNoteGem Mind Map for OneNote allows users to create mind maps using native elements, incorporating a time axis and leveraging all 138 OneNote tags. While this add-in is akin to Visio brainstorming, it distinguishes itself by integrating seamlessly with OneNote's features.

Despite its simplicity in drawing mind maps compared to other dedicated software, the add-in facilitates easy dragging and dropping of topics anywhere on the OneNote page. A "Refresh Redraw" button helps redraw the mind map if adjustments are made, providing move features for precise positioning.

The unique strength of this add-in lies in enabling mind map topics to harness all native OneNote features, including links, to-do lists, tags, tables, mathematical equations, and more. Unlike other mind-mapping tools, tightly integrates with OneNote, allowing users to incorporate page links within mind-map topics for easy navigation. If users prioritize these OneNote-centric features, OneNoteGem Mind Map stands out as a valuable choice, although users seeking more advanced drawing functions may explore alternative mind map add-ins.

Key Features of OneNoteGem Mind Map for OneNote:

1. Native Mind Map creation in Office OneNote 2021, 2016, 2013, 2010
2. Time Axis and integration with all 138 OneNote tags
3. Similar to Visio brainstorming with a focus on simplicity
4. Use of pen for drawing mind maps, with the need for "Refresh Redraw" for adjustments
5. Quick drag-and-drop functionality for repositioning topics on OneNote pages
6. Integration with OneNote's native features, including links, to-do lists, tags, tables, and mathematical equations
7. Ability to add different page links into mind map topics for seamless navigation
8. Unique capability to tightly combine with OneNote, unlike other mind mapping software
9. Suitable for users prioritizing OneNote-centric features over advanced drawing functions offered by other mind map tools.
