Gumrod – Basic Portrait Brush Set: This set of brush sets includes all the brushes I use most. I've been working on them for quite a while now trying to find the simple and convenient brush set that can do all the work. The brushes will help you draw an almost realistic drawing quickly and simple. My instagram account lets you discover a number of tutorials and explanations of how I make use of the brushes in this set of brushes.

- Four brushes for skin, making it soft or/and matte (powder)
- There are four highlights brushes each one of them is perfect in various settings
- Two textures brushes (one with hard and soft edges)
- Soft shadow brushes
- One brush for shadows that is hard
- Two hair brushes, which I also use in other areas to give some texture
- One soft blending brush I use everytime
