We took our experience in Zenhiser's studios with the boom fx pack. Through vintage outboard equipment, paired with advanced mastering plug-ins and techniques, we've been able to push the boundaries of sub-frequency with unbeatable clarity and power. Each audio sample was thoroughly listened to using several headphones, speakers, and anything else we could locate to ensure we could push the bass to their absolute limits without the cones of your speakers exploding. We will still issue that we will issue an Audio Warning with these exclusive Zenhiser boom FX "Watch Your Bass Pins I'm Telling Ya! ".

If you're searching for sub boom fx or break-up fx, impact blast sounds, and kicks built from scratch and designed to give the heft and frequency to the music productions you are working on, then Boom Blaster FX is the suitable pack for you. It is perfect for almost any genre; this pack features deep low fx for techno heads, blazingly fast impact kicks for house nuts, and mind-morphing breakdown fx that are perfect for Trance enthusiasts. Disgustingly great blast sounds that are distorted for the dubstep guys.
