Drawing Characters for Storytelling: Designing, Inking, and Coloring: The key to creating a great character design lies at the heart of your story. Take a class with the top teacher Award-winning Graphic Novelist Ira Marcks, as he leads you through designing, drawing, sketching, inking, and coloring a distinctive character that evokes the world they inhabit.

What You Will Learn:

- The use of story prompts can encourage characters.
- The way we shape language can lead to better design choices.
- How do you pose characters to convey their character.
- Techniques to add dimension and depth.
- Practical strategies to plan an appropriate color palette.
- Methods that have been tried and tested to use shadow and light.

Who This Class Is For:

- Anyone who is inspired to create art is influenced by stories and narratives.
- Illustrations, cartoonists, graphic novelists, and storyboard artists.
- The class is open to anyone with any level.
