Frank Doorhof – Glamour, Light of the Old Masters: Introducing the latest addition to our highly acclaimed Mastering the Model Shoot series—a release that many of you have eagerly awaited since the inception of our vlog episodes during this workshop. I'm thrilled to announce that it's finally available!

In this installment, we draw inspiration from the old masters, delving into the enchanting world of classic portrait, glamour, and fashion photography. Learn how to craft captivating film noir scenes, evoke the essence of a detective film, or capture striking high-contrast portraits with meticulous control over lens flare and background. Gain valuable insights into creating mood and atmosphere using special lenses and techniques that are both effective and budget-friendly.

Topics covered include mastering lens flare, utilizing flags for precise light control, understanding shadow transfers and light falloff, seamlessly integrating strobes with continuous light sources, effectively metering a scene, achieving a soft glow without post-processing, incorporating smoke effects without the need for a smoke machine, experimenting with crystals and prisms, harnessing the creative potential of tilt lenses, utilizing vintage lenses on modern cameras, harnessing the beauty of natural sunlight, and a plethora of additional tips and tricks.

Whether you're a novice or an experienced photographer, this comprehensive guide has something for everyone. With a runtime of approximately 90 minutes, this video is your go-to resource for mastering lighting control and achieving your desired photographic results.
