INTRODUCTION

As a photographer, I know the frustration of losing your motivation while editing. It can be overwhelming to go through each Lightroom slider and set it over repeatedly... This is tiring and can become boring quickly. I created this tool to aid in my editing. I soon realized that it could also aid others in getting their creativity back and assist them in creating amazing photos.

This EPIC Preset Collection is an amazing 10-step process that was specifically designed to get you away from the chaos as well as boredom that comes with editing photos. This collection will save you time keep you from getting stuck and let your creative flow back! You can go through the editing process to get your creative juices flowing again, and what you will realize is that you'll want to take a look at all of your photos from the past and present and make use of this collection to transform them into something amazing!

EASY AND QUICK TO Use

The best part about the collection is the fact that you don't have to learn a lot of new information. It's possible to learn everything in just a few minutes by watching a video tutorial included in the download.

Each color profile and preset has been carefully created to match different types of landscape photography and landscapes. If you take photos in the forest, in large landscapes, or in night, and you want to create stunning results for your photographs this collection is the perfect choice for you! The presets are arranged with subtle to more powerful effects, meaning you don't need to go through each one at random.
