Let's Paint Floral Greeting Cards: Embark on a delightful journey into the world of vibrant blossoms and artistic inspiration as we merge the joy of painting with the heartfelt gesture of sending personalized greeting cards. Tailored for beginners and seasoned artists, this class invites you to tap into your inner creativity, spreading joy and love by creating your own floral, hand-painted cards.

Throughout this creative exploration, we'll craft around a dozen distinctive greeting cards, including some with a holiday theme. The focus is on watercolor florals, although you can quickly adapt the techniques to acrylic, watercolor, or gouache paint. The supplies and designs are kept simple, ensuring you can complete each card in just a few minutes. I'll share my preferred Strathmore watercolor cards and provide a link for purchase, or you can make your own using watercolor paper. Regardless of the method, your loved ones and friends will cherish receiving cards adorned with your original artwork.

What you'll gain from this class:

- Master the art of painting simple yet elegant florals using photo references.
- Explore various watercolor floral techniques suitable for greeting cards and miniature paintings.
- Design and create a diverse set of a dozen greeting cards, including charming holiday-themed ones.
- Acquire skills to keep supplies and designs uncomplicated for quick and easy card-making.
- Craft beautiful cards in minutes without unnecessary complexity.
- Develop techniques applicable to acrylic, watercolor, or gouache paint.
- Discover the best and simplest supplies, empowering you to create numerous cards without purchasing additional greeting cards.
- Receive inspirational photo references and quality images of each card painted in the class downloads.

Who should take this class:

This class is perfect for anyone, from beginners exploring the world of painting to experienced artists seeking additional practice in creating simple, elegant florals from photo references. Join us in this artistic endeavor and infuse your cards with the unique beauty of your original artwork.
