Make bigger and better worlds.

Legendary industry figure Maxx Burman commands over a decade of experience creating iconic matte art for film, television, and video games on projects like Iron Man 3, Game of Thrones, Westworld, and DOZENS more. His career has included many roles such as game developer, art director as well as educator, and co-founder of the now-standard Kitbash 3D. In this brand-new course by Learn Squared, Maxx will demonstrate his sophisticated three-dimensional matte techniques, which will allow you to create breathtaking environments with ease and speed.
